

ERASMUS+ CBHE “FoodSTEM”

“Training a new generation of entrepreneurs in sustainable agriculture and food engineering”

Training on Food Safety Laboratory Management- May 2022

Under the framework of the FoodSTEM Project, 3 of food safety laboratories were set up at the partners university such as Institute of Technology of Cambodia (ITC), Royal University of Agriculture (RUA), and National University of Battambang (NUBB).

A training on Food safety laboratory management for the 3 partner universities RUA, ITC, and UBB were provided by the expert of the European university partner, University of Liege, Belgium.

The training was took place at each Institution of the Cambodia partners (ITC, RUA, and NUBB), from 26-31 May 2022.

TRAINING SCHEDULE AT EACH INSTITUTION

May 26-27, 2022	Training at National University of Battambang (NUBB)
May 30, 2022	Training at Institute of Technology of Cambodia (ITC)
May 31, 2022	Training at Royal University of Agriculture (RUA)

TRAINING PRGRAM- MORNING SESSION

- Introduction to good laboratory practices, especially in a microbiology laboratory
- Use, calibration and cleaning of micropipettes
- Use, calibration and cleaning of analytical scales

TRAINING PRGRAM- AFTERNOON SESSION

- Use, calibration, and cleaning of the specific equipment received by each institution
- Discussion and question answering about equipment or lab practices
- Prepare some documents that will be used in the lab